CENTER FOR CRISIS MANAGEMENT RESEARCH

Introduction

Founded in 2004, the Center for Crisis Management Research (CCMR) is a university-based institution for research, education and consultancy committed to the study of crisis management. CCMR has been selected as one of the Centers of Excellence by Beijing Planning Office of Philosophy and Social Science. Post-doc and graduate researchers from CCMR have gone on to careers at top universities, prominent research and training centers, and government agencies. CCMR's core faculty members have won key research projects from the National Science Foundation of China, National Planning Office of Philosophy and Social Science, Ministry of Education, Ministry of Public Health, State Administration of Work Safety, State Council's Emergency Management Office, and other national and local agencies. Consultancy reports on enhancing the emergency system capacity in China have been endorsed by Premiers, vice premiers, and other leaders. Backed by School of Public Policy and Management (SPPM) and enjoying joint researcher pool from home and abroad, CCMR is striving to be at the leading edge of crisis management research as well as practice and build a world-class platform for academic exchange.

- ◆ On April 28th, 2003 and July 15th, 2011, Professor Lan Xue gave lecture to the Political Bureau members of the Central Committee
